

2025 Victorian Premier's Literary Awards

The Award for an Unpublished Manuscript by an emerging Victorian writer

General Information

The Victorian Premier's Literary Awards were established in 1985 by The Hon. John Cain, Premier of Victoria, to mark the centenary of the births of Vance and Nettie Palmer and to honour and reward literary achievement by Australian writers.

Now in their 40th year, the Awards have received bipartisan support since their inception. In 2025, the Awards have a total prize pool of $317,000.

The Victorian government has established the following vision and aims for the Awards:

- promote Victorian leadership by honouring Australian literature, ideas, innovation and learning;
- recognise excellence in Australian writing and in contributions to the development of Australian culture;
- advance the Victorian community's appreciation of Australian literature and encourage a commitment to reading;
- assist living authors in their careers and promote Victoria's literary and publishing industries.

The Awards are administered by the Wheeler Centre on behalf of the Premier of Victoria.

The 2025 Victorian Premier's Literary Awards

In addition to the Award for an Unpublished Manuscript by an emerging Victorian writer, the 2025 Victorian Premier's Literary Awards include the prizes for Fiction, Non-Fiction, Poetry, Drama, Writing for Young Adults, Children's Literature, Humour Writing and Indigenous Writing, as well as the People's Choice Award. Winners for all categories will be announced at the Award ceremony at The Edge, Fed Square, on Wednesday 19 March 2025.
